Transferred copyright:

Most published material (including Internet resources) also has transferred copyright belonging to the publishers; for all published work, it is therefore best to assume you should ask both the original authors and the publishers for permission to use or re-use any specific files, film footage or any other information in whatever format and always credit the authors and source of that information.

Please respect the intellectual property of authors and the development costs of publishers.

Photographs/images

All photographic images within our domains are the copyright of Partners 2 Partners and Designer Designs unless otherwise stated, under Section 17 of the Copyright, Designs and Patent Act 1988.

Partners 2 Partners owns the copyright to its logo and all other promotional logos and images. Unauthorised copying or use of these by others is prohibited.

Any images or downloadable files (in whatever format) is published by Partners 2 Partners and made available to you on terms including that:-

1. It is for your personal or business use only
2. You may copy or transmit it or make it available to responsible persons or organisations.
3. You may not, except with our express prior written permission, distribute or commercially exploit it; you may not under any circumstances edit, remove, alter or deface any file or footage contained in any of our material.
4. Use of it is at your sole risk

Applications for permission to use any of the material contained on our site, including the Partners 2 Partners Logo, and any photographs, images text, film footage, promotional footage and CD's etc. must be made to Partners 2 Partners in writing.
